Lee Reeves Appointed Chair of the Community Foundation for Livingston County

Howell, MI – Lee Reeves has been named chair of the advisory committee of the Community Foundation for Livingston County, an affiliate fund of The Community Foundation for Southeastern Michigan.

The Community Foundation for Livingston County (CFLC), established in 1991, is a permanent charitable endowment created to benefit the residents of Livingston County. Its mission is to support and improve the county's quality of life. The CFLC builds community capital through contributions from individuals, businesses and foundations so the charitable needs of Livingston County can be met, today and in the future. The advisory committee oversees fundraising and grantmaking activities of the Foundation.

"I am honored for the opportunity to serve in a leadership capacity for the Community Foundation for Livingston County," said Reeves. "The growth of the Foundation is critical to the long term health and well-being of our area."

As chair, Reeves will coordinate the CFLC's outreach, grantmaking and fund-development efforts. Reeves previously served as philanthropic services officer at the Community Foundation for Southeastern Michigan, providing staff support for the CFLC's activities.

Prior to her work at the Community Foundation, Reeves spent 18 years as president of the Howell Area Chamber of Commerce. Currently, she volunteers on the Livingston 2001 Diversity Council. She holds a bachelor's degree in sociology from Oakland University, Rochester, Mich. and is a graduate of Stanford University, Stanford, Calif. and Leadership Livingston. Reeves was honored as Howell Citizen of the Year for her dedication and commitment to the Howell community. She resides in Brighton.
